

Nomen CLAVIS

Dies _____ Aetas _____

Lots of Deponent Verb Practice #1 -

Translate! Pay very close attention to TENSES. If it helps your short term memory processing, write endings (future, for instance) in the margin of this paper somewhere for your reference.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Videbantur - they were seeming | 23. We arise - orimur |
| 2. egressi estis - Y'all went out | 24. They fell - lapsi sunt OR lapsae sunt |
| 3. moratae sunt - They delayed | 25. they fall - labuntur |
| 4. mortua es - You died | 26. S/he expires (dies) - moritur |
| 5. sequemur - We will follow | 27. Y'all will delay - morabimini |
| 6. loquitur - s/he speaks/says | |
| 7. ingrediemini - Y'all will go in | More Challenging: |
| 8. lapsus est - He slipped / fell | 28. conemur - We may try OR Let's try |
| 9. progressi sunt - They advanced | 29. patiantur - Let them suffer OR They may s. |
| 10. oriuntur - They arise | 30. veritae sumus - we feared |
| 11. oriar - I will arise OR I may arise | 31. They will follow - sequemur |
| 12. patitur - S/he suffers | 32. We may arise - oriamur |
| 13. patietur - S/he will suffer | 33. Let him speak - loquatur |
| 14. conabimini - Y'all will try | |
| 15. progrediebantur - They were advancing | |
| 16. proficiscimur - we set out (are setting out) | |
| 17. moror - I delay | |
| 18. videbuntur - They will seem | |
| 19. consolata est - She comforted | |
| 20. passi sunt - They suffered | |
| 21. conabaris - You were trying | |
| 22. verebitur - s/he will fear | |

Challenge: True story: When I was living in Geneva, Switzerland (ask me about that sometime!), I saw this phrase written on a historic monument to a famous Swiss man. Hint: he was a Christian reformer, so translate dominus as "Lord." The line comes from the Jewish holy book of Psalms.

Translate it here: "I ^{shall}/_{will} not die but (I will) live and proclaim/tell the works/deeds of the Lord."

Nomen

Clavis

Dies

Aetas

Conjugate loquor, loqui, locutus sum in the:Present

	Singular	Plural
1 st person	loquor	loquimur
2 nd person	loqueris	loquimini
3 rd person	loquitur	loquuntur

Imperfect

	Singular	Plural
1 st person	loquebar	loquebamur
2 nd person	loquebaris	loquebamini
3 rd person	loquebatur	loquebantur

Future

	Singular	Plural
1 st person	loquar	loquēmur
2 nd person	loquēris	loquēmini
3 rd person	loquētur	loquentur

Perfect

	Singular	Plural
1 st person	locutus/-a sum	locuti/-ae sumus
2 nd person	locutus/-a es	locuti/-ae estis
3 rd person	locutus/-a est	locuti/-ae sunt

Clavi's

Lots of Deponent Verb Practice #2

Translate! Pay very close attention to TENSES and MOOD. If it helps your short term memory processing, write endings (future, for instance) in the margin of this paper somewhere for your reference.

NB – Listed by conjugation, deponent imperatives look like this:

Sing: conare! (try!)
verere! (fear!)
loquere! (talk!)
Orire! (arise!)

Plural: conamini!
veremini!
loquimini!
orimini!

1. Let them fear - vereantur
2. Y'all comforted - consolati/ae estis
3. we might have slipped - lapsi/ae essemus
4. he may enjoy - fruatur
5. these girls arise - (eae) oriuntur
6. these girls arose - (eae) ortae sunt
7. these girls may arise - (eae) oriantur
8. I may have spoken locutus/a sim
9. You seem - videris
10. You may seem - videaris
11. he might try - conaretur
12. he will try - conabitur
13. he may have tried - conatus sit
14. Slip! (s. and pl.) - labere! labimini!
15. they will slip - labentur
16. they might have slipped - lapsi/ae essent
17. they may slip - labantur
18. Let them suffer - patiantur
19. pati-mur - We will suffer
20. ingrediatur - s/he may go in
21. ingreditur - s/he goes in
22. ingredietur - s/he will go in
23. progredere! - Advance! (sing.)
24. moramini! - Delay! (pl.)
25. frui - to enjoy
26. die! (s. and pl.) - morere! Morimini!
27. morata esset - She might have delayed

On the back—Write a story using 4 deponent verbs; try to use at least one imperative or infinitive.